

2-2-1: Examining Authentication Factors

At the end of this episode, I will be able to:

1. Identify and explain authentication concepts, given a scenario.

Learner Objective: Identify and explain authentication concepts, given a scenario

Description: In this episode, the learner will examine authentication, authentication factors and multifactor authentication or MFA.

- What is authentication?
 - The process of validating a identity of a user or system.
- What are authentication factor?
 - A distinct form of evidence or proof of identity.
- What authentication factors are there?
 - Something you know
 - Username/password*
 - PIN
 - Secrets (responses to questions)
 - Something you have
 - Smartcard
 - Key fob
 - Authenticator app
 - Registered/compliant device
 - Something you are
 - Biometrics
 - DNA
 - Somewhere you are
 - Location
 - Trusted network
 - Something you do
 - Pattern recognition/arrangement
- What is multifactor authentication or MFA?
 - The process of requiring more than one authentication factor

-
- Additional Resources:
 - If applicable